Rape Cases

2549. SHRI K. RAHMAN KHAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of rape cases reported in the country during 1998, 1999 and so far during the current year together with those involving rape of minors; and

(b) the factors responsible for such sensitive crimes and for failure of the system to contain the malice?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) Information received from National Crime Records Bureau in this regard is given in the annexed statement (see below).

(b) 'Police and Public' Order being State subjects as per the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India, the registration, investigation, detection and prevention of crimes including sensitive crimes is essentially the responsibility of the State Governments. However, the Central Government has, from time to time, been writing to the State Governments emphasising the need to take measures in order to check the menace of crime against women. The measures suggested by the Central Government include, inter alia, appointment of Dowry Prohibition Officers, setting up of Women Cells in police stations, wider recruitment of women police officers and gender sensitisation training to police personnel.
